

WOMEN'S RIGHTS AND PEACE ARE INSEPARABLE.

If one day women from all over the world come together purely and simply for the good of humanity, it will be a force the world has never known before.

The morality police are making a chilling comeback in Iran. The hunt for unveiled women has resumed in Iran, where refusing to wear the hijab is now considered both a crime and a contagious mental illness. At the same time, a mysterious wave of poisoning with adulterated alcohol claimed dozens of lives. Two months before the anniversary of the beating to death of Mahsa Amini for a badly worn veil on September 16, the sinister white vans of the morality police, identical to the one which had embarked the young Kurd, have reappeared in the streets of Iranian cities. The first images of arrests show, among other things, a woman in a black chador immobilizing a woman without a veil, until the very rapid arrival of the gasht-e ershad van, literally « the patrols of the Islamic orientation ».

A few days after Mahsa Amini's death, I dedicated two texts to her. Here is a passage from the first then the second in full.

The Greek prefix “apo” means “do not” and the verb “kaluptein” means “veil, hide”. Taken together, this gives “not to veil, not to hide” or “REVEAL”, that is to say exactly, literally, what Mahsa Amini did, which cost her her life, at 22 years old.

From the depths of her murderous prison, deconstructed by the doctrinal violence of her torturers, raped by "dogs" under the applause of the Grand Masters of the untouchable orthodoxy of the laws of Sharia, Mahsa sensed that the time had come to put an end to the apocalypse underway in Iran, the apocalypse of darkness, the apocalypse of terror, the apocalypse of crass ignorance, the apocalypse of "As MY wife, you must obey me", the apocalypse of "I am in love, what should I do?", the apocalypse of "A woman is inferior to a man in religion".
